Committee Reports

Treasurer: Current balance is $2,684.35.

Secretary: Minutes were taken by Karen Fayer on behalf of Robin Wigham.

Membership: We have 18 paid members.

Social: Judi David and Ruth Miller will host next week's meeting. A volunteer is needed for November's meeting.

Programs: Next week's speaker will be from Pawleys Island Olive Oil located in the Hammock Shops.

Sunshine: A "thinking of you" card to be mailed to Joan Leonard.

Ways & Means: Angie has suggested special raffles for additional fund raising. Possible speakers, such as True Blue Nursery, may consider offering free consultations which can create new business for the vendor. Another consideration is members donating items/plants, etc. to raffle.

Agenda

Home & Garden Website

Debbie advised that Celise McLaughlin has created the H&G Club's website which can be accessed at thetraditioncommunity.com. Celise has confirmed that she will be at next week's meeting to assist in the laptop/TV connection for this month's presentation.

Revised By-Laws

A motion was passed to rename the Historian/Photographer Committee to Archivist/Photographer to more accurately describe the committee. Debbie requested that each committee chair review the by-law description in the membership booklet and submit edits/comments within the next week.

Vendor List Process

Last year April created a Vendor List to be shared with the H&G Club Members. To offer easier access to the members we can include the link in (i) the members' booklet,

(ii) the meeting minutes shared with the members, and (iii) the newly created H&G Club website at thetraditioncommunity.com.

Standard Operating Procedures

Debbie asked each chair to prepare an instructions list for their committee. This attention to detail will be a helpful guide for anyone who fills in or assumes the position.

Flower Committee Update

Reyn advised that there are 5 members who are interested in this committee. Fall planting in the common areas will be in early November.

Miscellaneous

- Seek assistance for co-chair for Ellie Benati, Programs
- Need host for November

Respectfully submitted,
Karen Fayer (on behalf of Robin Wigham)
